BARUC Club Rules and Expectations

Upon joining the club, all new members will be asked to review and sign a copy of the Club's Rules and Expectations, a club liability waiver and a work commitment form. An orientation at the arena by a board member will be required before a code is issued.

There shall be no one attending intoxicated and no drinking of alcoholic beverages at BARUC playdays. (This prohibition includes drinking on the premises before, during or after playdays unless another function where alcohol is permitted is scheduled on the premises immediately preceding or after the playday.)

There shall be no animal cruelty permitted on the BARUC premises or at any Club event. Animal cruelty is defined as over-exertion, the infliction of physical pain or the use of excessive force to an animal beyond what is necessary for normal discipline.

Barrel practice may only be performed with the barrels placed off the regular event stakes Barrels and poles used for practice must be moved back to the fence when practice is completed.

There shall be no behavior unbecoming or detrimental to the BARUC permitted at RUC activities. This includes causing trouble inside or outside the Club, excessive complaining, causing disturbances or unnecessarily aggravating any officers, members or spectators.

There shall be no cheating or attempts to cheat at any RUC activity or contest of any kind.

There shall be no stealing or destruction of RUC property or money at any time

There shall be no unauthorized use of electricity or lights at the RUC. Other than regularly scheduled events, maintenance and repair, and event preparation, light usage is limited to family nights which will be set by a vote of the General Membership (effective 3/12/15 Tue,Wed,Fri,Sat).

There shall be no lending of gate codes to non-members.

There shall be no unauthorized use of the RU facilities by non-members. All guests must be accompanied by a member at all times.

All members are required to work during the annual Rooster Days.

Signature_____   Date:_____